The men not only gave the cheers, but further emphasized their approval by pounding the butts of their muskets on the floor, an action which bespeaks be ant to improve them. The regiment will be reviewed by Mayor-elect Wurster of Brooklyn in its armory to-morrow night. There is still a deadlock in connection with the selection of a candidate for tunior Major. Members of the Twenty-second Regiment who had a memorable experience with "passes" when quar-tered in the Twenty-third Regiment armory last winter during the (rolley strike will be interested to learn that the important matter of passes is still in the mind of the Twenty-third Regiment headquarters. Col. Smith of that command has just issued instruc-tions prohibiting collisied men of the regiment from entering the armory before 8:30 P. M. without a pass. Ladles are also prohibited from entering the armory unaccompanied, except between the hours of 2 and 5 P. M. on Mondays and Fridays, or on presentation of a pass signed by a commissioned officer. The regiment will be reviewed next Saturday by the Hon, P. W. Wurster, Mayor elect of Brooklyn, and on this occa-sion the following members will be presented with the State long service decoration: Privates Charles H. Pennoyer and Samuel M. class. The members of the club are all well-known Peekstill men, who shoot simply as a pastime.

One of the most enthusiastic members in the club is James L. Gregory, or "Uncle Jim," as he is better known here. He has the distinction of being, in all probability, one of the oldest, if not the oldest, amateur rifle shot in the country. He is now in his seventy-ninth year, and is as hale and hearty as a lad in his teens. He seldom misses a regular shoot of the club, summer, fall, spring, or winter. And he makes the bull's-eye very often, too. His highest score is 83.

"Uncle Jim" was born in this village, on Main street, nearly opposite where he now conducts, with his grandson, C. F. Harstow, an all-around sporting goods store. It has been conducted by Mr. Gregory for half a century, during which time he has handled a rifle. The most lineresting part of the establishment is the repair shop, where the veteran sits during the day and evening, when not waiting on customers, and does repairing work. At this rendezvous also gather the sports, old and young, of the town, by the small stove each night, and hear the latest news from the scat of war, at least the sporting war. Mr. Gregory is in the best of health. He has a large circle of friends, and although of a retiring and modest disposition, is one of Peekskill's respected citizens. The First Battery's review and ball will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 8, In the West Fourty fourth street Brig. Gen. Howard Carroll, Chief of Artillery, and the military exercises will commence at 8:30 o clock. A very large number of invitations have been accepted, among whom are very many prominent officers, and the event promises to be the most successful in the history of the battery.

Company G. Ninth Regiment, Capt. Wilcox, an nounce a smoker, to be held at the armory on Satur-day evening, Jan. 25. An innovation has been made in the price of admission, which, it has been decided, shall be 49 cents.

Capt. H. G. Badgley of Troop Two, Squadron A, ha ments by the members of his troop.

Col. Smith of the Sixty-ninth Regiment, has appointed Thomas J. Dunn, the well-known Tammany leader, Commissary of Subsistence. Company E will hold an election for Lieutenant to morrow night, and Company II will hold an election for Lieutenant next Thursday night. A review of the Seventy first Regiment will prob ably be held the latter part of next month. The mat-ter of selecting candidates for First and Second Lieutenants in Company I seems to be exciting quite a difference in opinion among the members. The most promising candidate, it is said, is Quartermaster.Ser-geant Paton, who has been a member of the regiment some thirteen years, and has an excellent record Opposed to him are Privates Meeks and Williams, two comparatively new men, but with good records. For the coming vacancy of Captain in Company C candidates, it seems, will not be wanting. The name of Lieut, Heindaman, Adjutant Dowling, and ex-Capt, Zabriskie are already mentioned, and there are several dark horses. In the Fourth Regiment of Jersey City Sergeant O'Connel of Company K has been appointed Sergeant-Major of the Third Battalion by Col. Abernathy, after a very creditable examination, in which there were three other competitors. The following officers re cently elected in the regiment have passed the Examining Board: First Lieuts, Harry J. Rolph, Company H. and F. Steigleiter of Company K; Second Lieuts. muel Drayton, Company A: Herbert S. Culver, Company i.; Alfred Lehman, Company M. and J. J. Toffey, Jr., of Company C. On Saturday evening, Jan. 11, the regiment will hold a stag in the armory, at which the cream of variety talent will be secured, and the stag cream of variety talent will be secured, and the stag, it is said, will surpass anything ever offered in Jensey City. Col. Abernathy has appointed Dr. Jeseph M. Rector assistant surgeon of the Third Battalion. Company D has elected First Lieut. See Captain. The First Troop of Cavairy has decided to purchase additional ground, on which a riding hall will be built. The officers of the four colored companies organized in Jersey City. Newark, Trenton, and Cannon desire to become a part of the National Guard, and they made application some time ago. Not having been mustered in however, the colored troops are setting navious about the matter, and propose to ascertain the reason of delay and endoavor to hasten matters.

The annual report of the Staten Island Cricket Club, recently issued by Chairman R. St. G. Walker, shows that last season was quite a successful one, the club winning the championship cessful one, the club winning the championship pennant of the Metropolitan League. The first cleven played fourteen matches, of which eight were won, four lost, and two drawn, and the summer eleven played twenty-six matches, of which eighteen were won, five lost, and three drawn, making a total of forty matches played, of which twenty-six were won, nine lost, and five drawn. In addition to these several club, veteran and junior, matches were played, to say nothing of the games played by the lady members of the club.

One of the principal features of the season was the game played at Philadelphia against the crack Germantown C. C., when Staten Island, with the assistance of the New Jersey A. C., defeated the Quakers by an inning and ninety-four runs. The following is the record:

ATLANTIC A. C. BOUTS. Sharp Glove Contests in the Club Rooms at Brooklyn, A select crowd of spectators witnessed the private subscription glove bouts of the Atlantic A. C. on Friday night at the club rooms, Linden street, Brook en. The contests proved to be very spirited, and furnished plenty of amusement for the members and guests of the club, although no knockouts occurred. The first bout was at catchweights, Joe Murphy. Atlantic A. C., opposing George Green, Ridgewood A. C., Green was a comparative novice at the game, and hardly landed one good punch during the six rounds. Murphy, who did not wish to knock Green out, got the verdict.

The next fight proved to be a hummer. Barney Williams of New York and Harry Richards were the opposing pair. They met at catchively the fighting for three rounds. Then Williams took a hand in the merry game of slugging, and from that out it was either man's fight. Both were badly punished, and knock-downs were plenty. The referee decided it a draw.

The final "go" of the evening was between Fred Anderson of the Atlantic A. C. and Sammy Bryant, colored, of Brooklyn. Bryant proved to be the shiftler fighter. After the second round, in which Bryant began to fight, the issue was never in doubt, although Anderson flattered his backers with a good rally in the fifth round. Bryant had enough up his sleeve to win, and captured the long end of the purse without much trouble. C., opposing George Green, Ridgewood A. C.

thus the amount of slide it covers, which is of vital importance in coaching, can only be approximately determined.

The new device consists of an indicator attached to the back of the seat and reaching over the slide of the shell. The indicator, which is black, can be easily seen when it moves over the white scale on the outer surface of the shell. The scale is graduated so as to enable the coach to note exactly the position and various movements of the sliding seat. By means of this invention it is very easy to coach a crew to a uniform length of slide, and it is an accurate device to detect the slightest error in regard to the use of the seats. the result of white's capture), which should have proved successful.
